BOMBAY COURIER
Extraordinary.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 18.6.

YESTERDAY evening, arrived the Honorable Company's ship, MARQUIS OF ELY, Captain James Dalrymple, having left England on the 26th of February: the following is a list of the Passengers.

Mr. W. Bruce, Writer,—Mr. W. Frazer, Assistant Surgeon,—Mr. R. Glasspoole, 2d Officer of the Buckingamshire,—Mr. B. Shelly, Free mariner,—Mr. A. Grant, Do,—Mr. A. Pelly, Do.—Mr. T. Boyce, Do.—Mr. Bryan, Bombay Marine,—Mr. G. Goreham, Do.

Also Detachments of H. M. 17th Regiment of Dragoons, and 47th and 56th Regiments.

The Ely touched no where on her paſsage out; but has experienced a good deal of bad weather, and was, we understand in some distreſs off Bancoote, where she parted with three Cables: the Veſsel was in sight on Monday, but could not, on account of the boisterous state of the weather, make the port; and anchored in the harbour yesterday Evening with some difficulty.

No Letters or Papers are yet delivered, and by a notification at the Post Office, it appears they will not be given out till tomorow at 12 o'Clock.

We have not heard, as yet of any public News of importance and believe there is none.
